ALMA MATER

Come, comrades dear, and join us
We'll raise a mighty cheer
For the good old Alma Mater,
To all of us so dear,
For there is not one among us,
But loves her with his might,
And always does his bravest
For the Blue and Orange bright.

Dear beloved Alma Mater
We honor thy fair name,
And as athletes and as students,
We'll earn you praise and fame.
On the football field or diamond,
For thee shall praise resound;
In the classics hall of learning
Shall be owned thy fair renown.

All too fast the time draws nearer—
School days behind we'll leave;
Then for thee dear Alma Mater
In the after years we'll grieve;
Always as a gentle mother,
Our hearts to thee are true,
As you teach us loyal friendship
To the Orange and the Blue.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

It's 1962, and the class of 1952 has all gathered here in Mexico for a reunion. As I enter Radio Station PATIO, where our class prominents are to be interviewed, the first thing that catches my eye is Joe's and Joyce's Muscle Making Gym run by Joe Allen and Joyce Slavin.

"Every adobe house should have songbirds and flowers," that's the slogan I see suspended over Peachy and Roses Greenhouse. Carol Rose and Peachy Hurley, who own the greenhouse, have employed Bob Breggren to sell his "Tweepers," a special brand of songbird.

There's a crowd gathered up ahead, I wonder what's the matter? Oh, a catastrophe, Richard MacDonald dropped one of his manglewortzels, and it had to be taken to the first aid department. The RN in charge is Marlene Borck. Hovered around the manglewortzel are Lila Brigham, Student Nurse, and Dr. Richard Brink. Janice DeGolyer, tamale maker, and her rival, Monroe Stanton, tortilla maker, who are at last on friendly terms, have rushed to the scene of the accident. Here comes Donald Stuart, prominent Naval Reserve man, to administer respiration to the poor manglewortzel.

As I step into the elevator on the way to the 150th floor, I see to my astonishment that Dorothy Samchisen is running it. The great tycoon of the snitchel market, George Meyers and his secretary, Millie Thompson, are on the elevator, too. They're headed for millionaire Bob Ranck's office on the 197th floor. Bob, by the way, will long be remembered in Mexico City for his generous donation of Radio Station PATIO.

Here's the 150th floor, and what's this? . . . why, there's a whole line of shops and stores. There's Loretta Straley's French Fashion shop in which Alice Hall is the imported French model. Betty Malloy, airline hostess, and Peggy Espey, owner of Espey's Telephone Company, are gazing into the window. The offices of Corey's Courier, a newspaper published by Barbara Corey, adjoin the fashion. She specializes in romantic poetry. There's Robert Kline going in, wonder who he wants romantic poetry for? There's Joan Kadlec, who runs a home for waifs and strays, rushing up to greet Ethelyn Huff, interpreter at the UN, and Lionel Peterson, architect, who designed the radio station. Here's something interesting, "The Tall Timber Tessie and Tim Club, founders, Debonair Dale Hurd and Jumping Joyce Palmer." The sign bears the signature, Florence Kendall, commercial cartoon cutter. Captain Jack Cleary, Sergeant Francis Touschner, Air Force men, and Private Dennis Dourghty, Marine, are having a heated discussion with Constance MacDonald, Wave, as to whether Bob Meade ought to run for President of Mexico or not. Doris Clark, Jack's private secretary, is taking down every word. Doris is known all over Mexico for being able to take 240 words a minute in shorthand. What's all the cheering down the hall? Oh, I see, Jim Krystof and Jerry Truax just came in. Jim, you know is the manager of Mexico's only one man basketball team. The one man is Jerry Truax.

There's James Phielix, pottery seller, John Morich, basket weaver, and John Kordyl, hurache peddler, gazing admiringly at Gretchen Updyke's revolutionary new hairdo. She runs her own beauty shop, you know. Well, I'd better be on my way up to the 200th floor.

Oh, isn't this nice. Look at the unusual furniture, why, it's rubber. The tag says, "made by Way's and Weigle's Wittle Wubber factory." Sitting on the divan is James Young, surrounded by admiring women.

Everyone is seated now, waiting for the interviews to begin. There goes the announcer, Duane Smith, into the studio. He's closely following by Veronica Sekella, fastest female script writer in Mexico, and Rose Senkiw, station librarian. Here's a last minute arrival, Joe Kelly, typical Mexican farmer, with his sombrero trailing behind. Duane has begun the announcing. Miss Sharon Danks, manager and "big boss" of the radio station is going to do the interviewing.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

She also manages two branch radio stations,—one in Elmira Heights, New York, and one in Loping, Timbuctoo.

The prominents to be interviewed are Donald Moschek and Jeannine Marcy, who have revived vaudeville in Mexico. They are especially known for their witty remarks spiced with Shakespeare and big words. Carol Miller, popular comedienne, and the other candidate for president of Mexico is also on the list. Lillian Hritsko, who owns "Lil's Little Theatre," where Don, Jeannine, and Carol perform has seated herself. Her theatre is the only canary yellow one in the world.

A party for all class members at Sunbeam Storch's Hacienda Resthome is the main feature after the interview. On the entertainment bill are Jean Knox, Lynne Doane, Eugene Faivre, and Mary Crum, who are going to race their hot rods for the Asher Award. That is a special award given by Lucy Asher, owner of Mexico's Newberry store, every year for bravery in the hot rod. Dot Hower and Charlotte Knox, grease monkeys, are responsible for souping the hot rods up. Jack Emmick, Jimmy Ingram, and Jean Rosplock will furnish the music for a dance afterwards. Jack and Jim play, and Jean sings. I hear that Sunbeam Storch has the only male waitress in the world, none other than Marty Richardson. Isn't that remarkable? Lois Goodwin, Peggy O'Neill, and Beverly Kakretz, who triple tied for Mexico's best cook contest, are in charge of the food.

Anyone who would prefer horseback riding instead of dancing, I understand, can rent a horse from Robbins Racetrack, owned by Grace Robbins. Gosh, this is all so exciting! Almost too good to be true.

Oh, oh, Frank Matkosky and Bob Cordick, super sound men, are waving for silence—the interviews are about to begin, so I'll stop here—Now to pull my shawl around me and settle back—

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

With the coming of the end of our high school career, the class of 1952 looks back on four exciting and successful years.

In our Freshman year Mr. Stuart became our able advisor and our officers were: President, Jack Cleary; Vice-President, Carol Miller; Secretary, Gretchen Updyke; and Treasurer, Sharon Danks. An assembly program soon after entering high school put us in debt, so at Christmas time, with enthusiasm, we held holly sales.

As carefree Sophomores we started off the year with the very successful "Twirp Dance" and followed through by presenting the Thanksgiving program. The Christmas season found us exchanging clothing for holly with a family in Kentucky. In spite of the cold, we ended our Sophomore year with a picnic at Enfield Glen. Our leaders for the year were: President, Jerry Watson; Vice-President, Bob Meade; Secretary, Gretchen Updyke; and Treasurer, Sharon Danks.

Our Junior year was full of projects and activities. We had our class elections with the following victorious: President, Robert Meade; Vice-President, Gretchen Updyke; Secretary, Sharon Danks; and Treasurer, Robert Ranck. We held a successful magazine subscription campaign and also sold refreshments at football and basketball games. Our class rings which we had so eagerly awaited, arrived in March. The perfect end to a perfect year was the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet with Marlene Borck as Mistress of Ceremonies.

This year, as Seniors, we sold candy at Christmas and in February we presented the play, with the never to be forgotten genius, "Belvedere."

In this last year of high school our officers were: President, Robert Meade; Vice-President, James Krystof; Secretary, Sharon Danks, and Treasurer, Gretchen Updyke.

Now as the class of 1952 looks back, we believe these have been four years well spent and ones to long be remembered.

At Christmas we made a profit on our sale of holly. During May we collaborated with the Sophomores in giving a dance to celebrate Leap Year.

Looking back we can say that this year has been a complete success not only financially, but also socially. Next year we shall tackle our problems with like vigor.

The Ushers Club is a new club that has been added to our long list of activities.

This organization is open to any Junior or Senior girl who is interested. The girls usher at the school assembly programs and for any outside affairs that are held in our auditorium.

They are always willing to offer their services at any of the extra-curricular activities.

The Newspaper Club has experienced numerous setbacks this school year, but despite these adversities, we are now on the road to recovery.

The annual dime dances after the basketball games are still an exclusive project of the Newspaper Club.

In the past months we have had a "Back to School" issue and also an issue summarizing the highlights of the Starlit Ball.

Our future plans will include an Easter issue and a paper at Commencement time.

Mr. Dumbleton has been our faithful advisor throughout the school year and has been a very helpful consultant.

WHAT'S SO SPECIAL ABOUT LIBRARY COUNCIL? That's a good question. There really isn't any magic that transforms fun-loving girls into school-minded students. The remarkable staying power of the girls in the face of all the dusting, mending and shelving of books, desk duty, filing cards, and recording circulation, is due to their desire to serve the school. The main purpose of Library Council is to stimulate a greater interest in the reading, use and care of books.

Book Week in November was celebrated by having the Watkins Glen Library Council as our guests at a Punch Party in the library. Lighted candles and flowers made it a festive occasion. It proved to be a happy exchange of ideas, under the chairmanship of Helen Kerrick. Rose Senkiw, our president, highlighted the affair with a book review and Joan Rothchild, our clever artist, painted individual book marks as gifts for our guests.

This social event was soon followed by others: the annual Thanksgiving Eve Dance, "Pilgrim's Prance" with Joyce Emmick as chairman; the Christmas Supper Party with Phyllis Kennon and Roena Egan as hostesses; the Valentine's Day luncheon, under Dorothy Rumsey's chairmanship, where gifts were given to secret pals; the Smorgasbord at the Mark Twain in May, arranged by Joan Smoogen, when the Sophomore and Junior members received their pins and guards; and last, but not least, the June picnic supervised by Bonnie Kingsley, at Harris Hill.

Rose Senkiw was awarded the Gold Key Award for four years of efficient and faithful service as a Library Council member.

The Language Club is open to members of Latin and French classes. Its purpose is to provide relaxation and to stimulate interest in the study of languages.

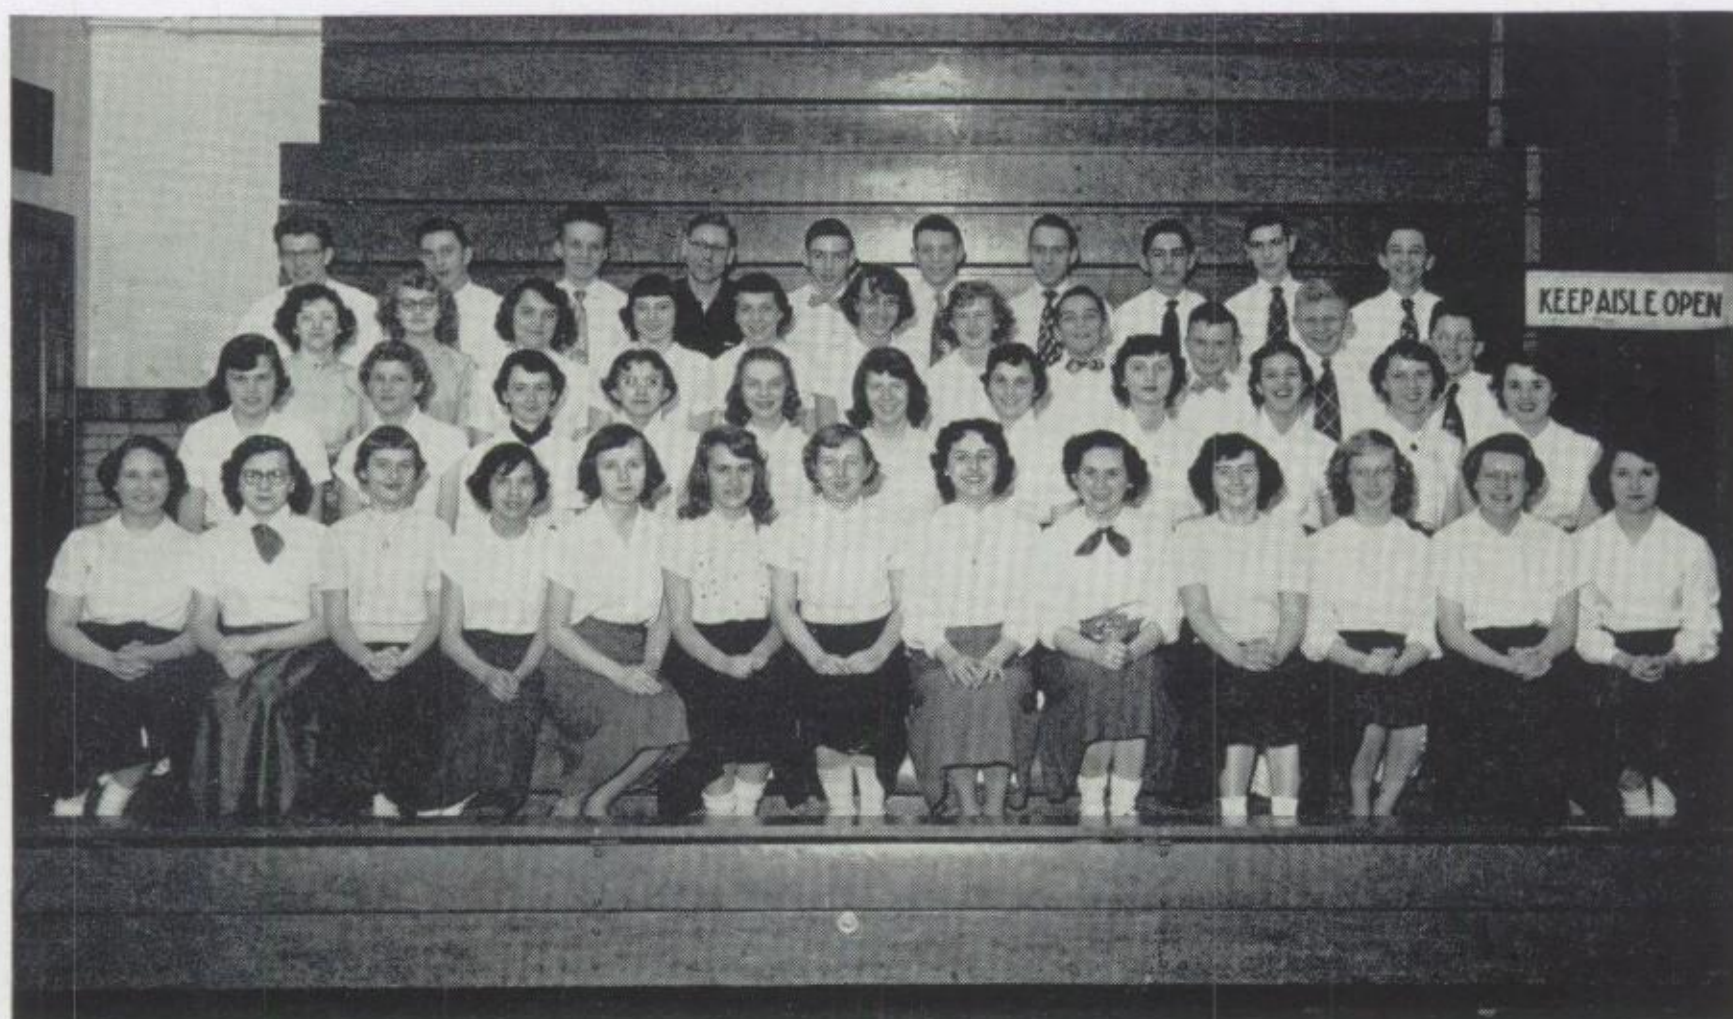

Last year the club presented an assembly program in Roman costume. The same program was presented in Horseheads as an exchange program.

This year's activities have included a very successful Christmas party and smorgasbord supper, as well as the assembly program which is becoming traditional at T. A. E.

Officers of the Club are:

President	Francis Palladino
Vice-President	Danny Green
Secretary	Shirley Evans
Treasurer	Robert Dwyer

The club schedules films for the faculty and work jointly with all the departments of the school. They are also in charge of movies for assemblies and the music for dances and parties.

The club greatly appreciates the fine cooperation they receive from faculty members in their many projects.

President	Gretchen Updyke

Secretary	Joyce Emmick
Treasurer	Veronica Sekella
Librarians	Bernard MacNamara, Elmer Stanton
Robe Monitors	Anne Haich, Bernard MacNamara

Our first performance of the year was at the Oratorical Contest, November 29. Then, on December 17, we presented several selections at the Kiwanis Club Revue. Again this year, we performed a special Christmas program for the Rotary Club.

The month of February found all of us very busy and intent on making our 7th Annual Starlit Ball a success. With "An Evening in Paris" as our theme, we presented to the public a dance on February 22 which will long be remembered.

During this time we were also laying groundwork for the Easter program. On April 9, we gave the Easter program in an assembly. We hope that we succeeded in conveying to our audience the true meaning of the Easter story.

Again we displayed our musical accomplishments at the Annual Spring Concert on Friday, May 23. Then, to conclude our activities for the year, we sang at the Baccalaureate and Commencement ceremonies in June.

Thus the 1951-52 school season has been very busy and successful for the Thomas A. Edison Mixed Choir.

The Male Glee Club has had a very successful year with a record of fifty-six members. Together with the Girls Chorus we presented the Annual Christmas program and assisted with the Starlit Ball. After giving a special assembly program, we completed the year with the Spring Concert. All in all we have had a very busy year. Joyce Emmick was our accompanist.

Trio means three parts, 1st Soprano, 2nd Soprano, and Alto. Triple means—three in each part. Put them together and you have nine lovely ladies; plus our accompanist.

This is strictly a volunteer group that meets during the noon hour, three days a week. It was organized just "for the fun of singing" and because "we love to sing." Several outside engagements were sung as well as participation in school assemblies.

The Thomas A. Edison High School Girls Chorus is a group of ninety girls attired in black skirts and white blouses trimmed with black velvet ribbon.

We are proud of our Christmas program. It was said to have been one of the nicest ever given at T. A. E. It was built around the theme "What Does Christmas Mean." We sang as a special number, "Winter Wonderland." The Boys Glee Club and Girls Chorus blended their voices together on Fred Waring's "Twas the Night Before Christmas." With the High School Band accompanying both groups, we sang traditional Christmas Carols, as a background for the presentation of the Christmas Story.

Membership in Girls Chorus is open to any high school girl who likes to sing. The present group is so large that it is necessary to rehearse in two groups, but we join together for all performances. All music must be memorized.

"Give Me Some Men Who Are Stout-Hearted Men"—Here are four of them and they have blended their voices together all year and have represented T. A. E. on many occasions. James Collins, 1st Tenor; Welling Storch, 2nd Tenor; Elmer Stanton, Baritone; and Bernard MacNamara, Bass, rehearsed noon hours, after school, and any other available time. All they needed was a place—they could always come up with some "close harmony."

The Thomas A. Edison band, under the direction of Mr. Wesley Johnson, has become a first-rate high school band. Talent plus hard work on the part of each of the forty members has achieved this goal.

Practicing five days a week kept the band in top form for parades, football games, assemblies and any other assignments that came up.

Nine pretty twirlers showed up in new uniforms this year to add extra eye appeal.

Although several seniors will be leaving this year, Mr. Johnson is sure the members of the junior band will be able to take their places admirably.

Leaders Club consists of forty girls who are selected by Mrs. Long because of their interest and ability. They meet weekly to assist in planning the program for the girls gym classes, take roll call and serve as assistants during gym classes.

The Girls Athletic Association had a very busy year. The cold fall curtailed our hockey season, but basketball proved to be our main sport. The highlight of our season was the Senior team vs. our Junior Varsity of which the girls were the surprising victors. In our intra-mural basketball the Sophomores were the stronger team being undefeated. Our Senior Team played a group of Southside girls on their court, and proved the superiority of T. A. E. Even before our volleyball season began a team went to Corning to a five school sport day. Our team placed third. During our regular volleyball season we enjoyed other sports days. The baseball season again brought us on to the field as a successful team. We think our season has proved to be a very worthwhile and enjoyable season.

At our annual award picnic the girls earning seventy-five points received chevrons, those earning one hundred and fifty points received numerals, those earning two-hundred and fifty points received letters; and five Seniors were awarded the highest award, the key.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

With the opening of school on September 5 came the sound of the pigskin being booted about and the enthusiasm of 70 candidates who reported for the squad. With only a handful of returning lettermen from the previous year and the absence of Danny Compton who moved to California, it was hoped that hard work and enthusiasm would overcome these obstacles.

The Heights team and spectators were stunned when in the opening game, Corning North returned the opening kick-off for a touchdown. The Orange and Blue never fully recovered from this lightning thrust and went down to defeat. Victories over Owego, Painted Post, and Watkins Glen on successive Saturdays indicated the steady improvement of the team. A loss to Corning Free Academy, win over Bath and losses to Waverly and Horseheads set the pattern for the second half of the season.

The 4-4 record for the second consecutive year does not indicate the hard work and sincere effort that was given by the squad. With the returning of several lettermen we are all eagerly awaiting 1952.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

With only Truax and Krystof returning from last year's basketball squad, the need for rebuilding was self evident. After three weeks of drill, our season opened with a 53-45 loss to a veteran Corning North team. A win over Sayre, loss to Owego, and a win over Corning Free Academy seemed to set the tempo of our season. Hard work, determination, and traditional Heights spirit gave our team a record of 9 victories, 7 losses in our regular season play. Our entrance into the Sectionals gained us two more victories before being eliminated by Waverly in a well played game.

Highlights of the season was the play of Jerry Truax, who finished second in league scoring with a total of 161, Bob Brisco, with his one hand push shot, and the team work of Krystof, Gilbert, Northrop and Minch.

During the past school year, Coach Northrop has again organized an active Varsity Club. The club is constantly expanding and it is the desire of the group to take a very active part in the social and general activities of the school.

One of the major activities for this year was the First Annual Varsity Club Dance. This is to be an annual affair from now on and it is hoped that this social event will be a tradition of the school. The proceeds of the dance each year are to go to the sweater fund.

The club meets twice a month. Membership is limited to boys who have earned a letter in any major sport. These fellows are presented a sweater when they earn the letter.

Officers are:

President Jack Cleary

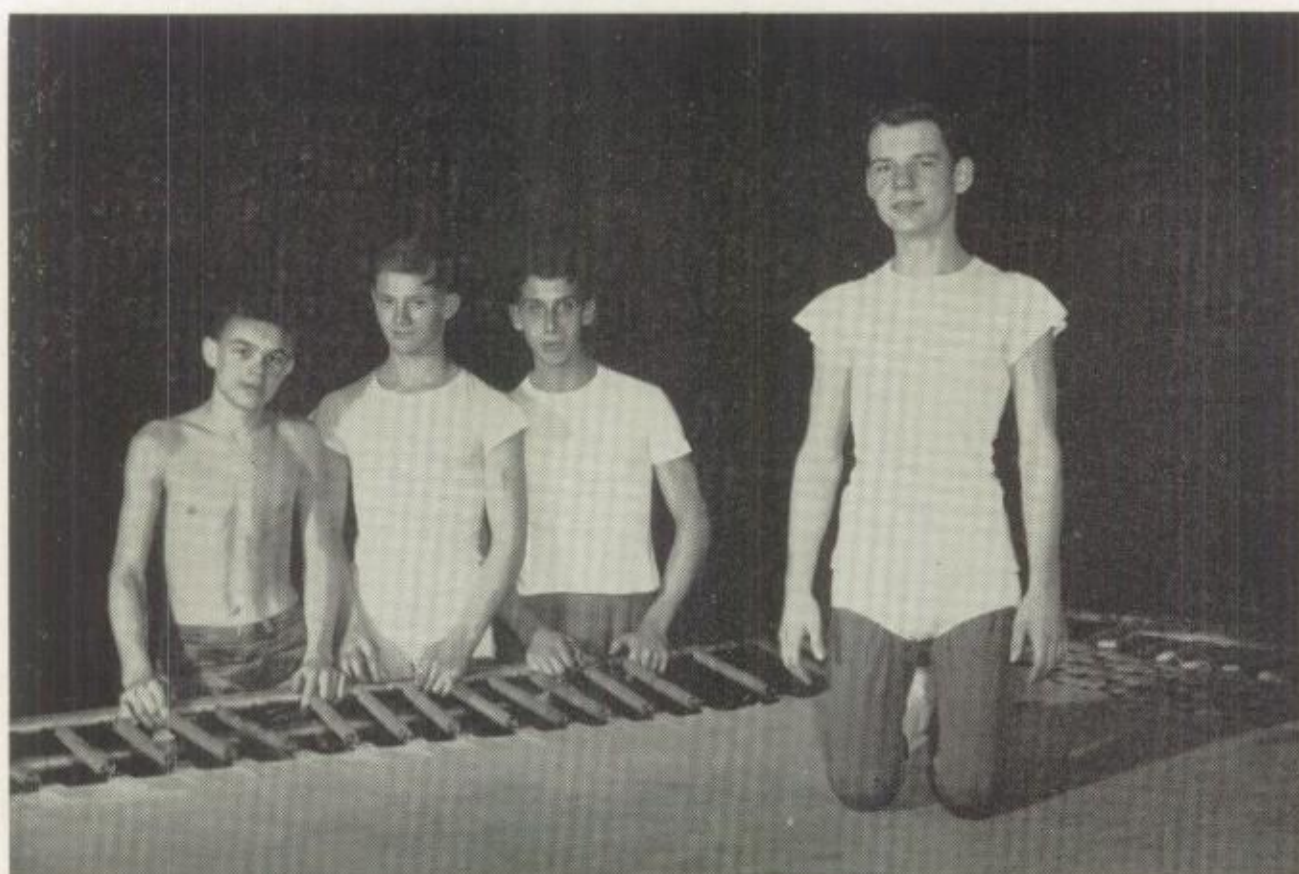

Vice-President James Krystof

Secretary Francis Palladino

Treasurer Raymond Rounds

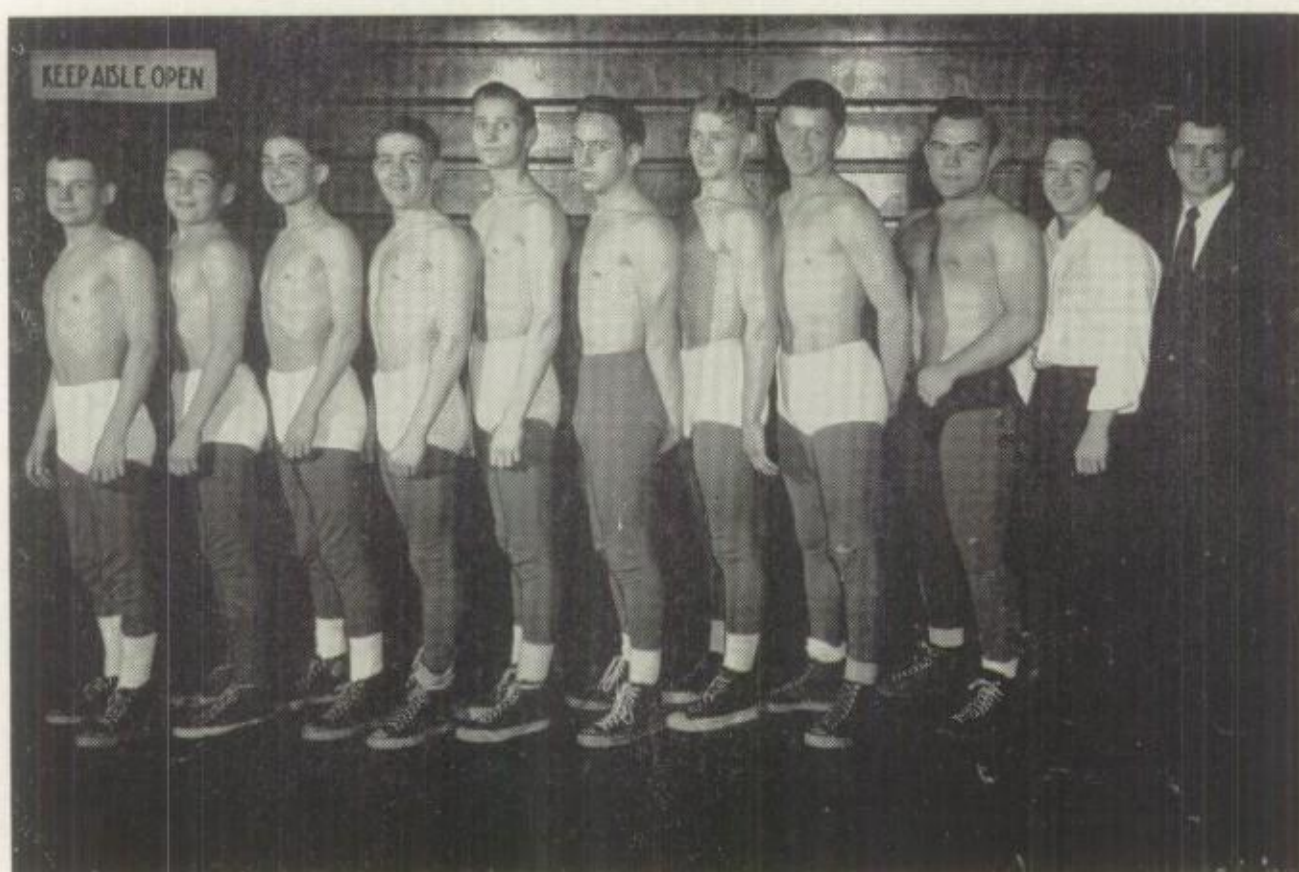

The Varsity Club wish to express their appreciation to Mr. Northrop for his interest and helpfulness not only as a coach but also as a friend.

TRAMPOLINE TEAM

Douglas Kingsley, Eldon DePew, Louis Cowan, Elmer Stanton.

WRESTLING TEAM

Elmer Stanton, Robert Dwyer, Gerald Bannister, Rexford Ingerick, Douglas Kingsley, Francis Palladino, Eldon DePew, James Irvine, Michael Skalko, Gerald Dwyer, Mr. David Cheplick, Coach.

After one year's varsity competition the progress made by this year's wrestling squad was in evidence. Led by Captain James Irvine the team compiled a 4 win 3 loss record in dual meets and fared commendably in a county meet at Horseheads and in the sectional meet at Ithaca. At the county meet Elmer Stanton, Eldon DePue and Mickey Skalko won championship and at the sectional meet Elmer was again a finalist but lost by decision. Mickey Skalko was a semi-finalist in the sectional meet in which sixteen schools competed.

Baseball was welcomed by all after a strenuous indoor season. A hustling ball club opened the season with a 6-3 win over Painted Post. A 7-6 record over strong opponents proved to be a traditional season. The pitching of Bob Rundle and power hitting of James Krystof rated them among the best. The usual thrills and unexpected plays again were typical of our national pastime.

The Golf Team this year participated in matches with the following schools:

Ithaca
Corning
Binghamton Central
Johnson City
Endicott Johnson
Sectional at I. B. M.

Although the fellows did not come out so well as far as scores were concerned, the practice and experience derived from competing with much larger schools was very beneficial. We are all hoping for a much better season in 1952.
